ON OUTSIDE INFORMATION.

Sch. Samoset Was Seized on Apparently Slender Evidence.

If Case Is Proven Craft Can Get Clear on a Fine.

The North Sydney, C. B., Herald, of Sept 2, in speaking of the seizure of the sch. Samoset, says:

"This morning at ten o'clock, Capt. James Gordon of the revenue cutter Gladiator made what may prove an important capture. For some time he has been receiving reports to the effect that an American fisherman was illegally fishing inside the limit. Usually he has been pretty vigilant with the result that, this morning, on rounding Cranberry head he came on the American schooner Samoset, Sampson master, riding at anchor in the coves. The circumstances were enough to warrant the vessel's detention. She was taken in tow by the Gladiator, and is now tied up at J. W. Ingraham's wharf pending investigation. Capt. Sampson stated that he was two months out from Duxbury, Mass., and had but 30 bbls. of fish aboard. This is the first case of its kind in North Sydney, where a vessel is held on the report of outside parties, and the result of the investigation will be watched closely by the residents of this town, and visiting American fishermen. If the offence should be proven we are informed the minimum fine is $50 and the maximum $400.

STILL GOING UP.

Salt Mackerel Reach $20 Per Barrel This Morning.

Fare of Sch. Lucania Sold at That Figure.

Mackerel are going up and the last sales of $17.25 per barrel of last Friday was lost behind the big advance of this morning when the fare of sch. Lucania, Rips fish, 140 barrels, went to Fred. Bradley at $20 per barrel.

BIG ADVANCE.

Fresh Codfish Took Good Liberal Jump This Morning.

Fresh codfish took a big jump this morning when the fare of sch. Muriel sold to Fred. L. Davis at $2.15 per hundred weight for large and $1.75 for medium.

The last sales were $1.75 for large and $1.37 1-2 for medium.

Sept 6.

SCH. SAMOSET'S DETENTION.

Captain Claims He Was Not Detected in Illegal Fishing.

A despatch from our regular correspondent at North Sydney states that Capt. Samson of sch. Samoset says that he was undetected and that the craft was seized on private information. The officials are mum until they hear from Ottawa. The sympathy there is with the vessel on her vexatious detention on what is possibly "fishy" information.

LOTS OF ICE BERGS.

Seen by Sch. Tacoma on Her Northern Trip.

Sch. Tacoma, Capt. Adelbert Nickerson, arrived this morning from far away Bacallen Bank, with a fine trip, 45,000 pounds of fresh halibut.

Capt. Nickerson reports going up as far as 55.50 north. He saw no field ice but ice bergs, and large ones at that, were very plentiful. He saw none of the flitching fleet, but spoke sch. Senator.

Good Trip.

The sch. Fannie Belle Atwood, Capt. Henry Atwood, is in from the Scatteri ground with a fine trip, 120,000 pounds of fresh cod fish.

Sept. 7.

WANT GOOD WEATHER.

Then Seiners Off Sydney Believe They Will Get Fares.

Some Fish Taken But Wind Strong Off Shore.

A letter to the TIMES from our North Sydney, C. B., correspondent under date of Sept. 1, states that sch. Lena and Maud was there on that date, sailing again later in the day. Capt. McFarland had a severe cold and came in to see a physician. He reports five Gloucester seiners cruising off there and that all the skippers were confident that if they are given a few days continuous favorable fishing weather that good fares will be secured. Mackerel are on the coast but weather conditions continue unfavorable for fish schooling. While the weather, for the most part, has been fair and warm on shore, outside the vessels are meeting strong winds. On Tuesday and Wednesday the Lena and Maud secured 50 barrels of mackerel, the Priscilla Smith 80 barrels and Constellation 40 barrels.

More High Priced Mackerel.

The fare of sch. Bessie M. Devine sold to Frank E. Davis at $20 per barrel and that of sch. Gossip to E. K. Burnham at the same figure.

The fare of sch. Arcadia sold to the Andrews Co., that of sch. Mary E. Hart to William H. Jordan and that of sch. Norumbega to Gloucester Mackerel Company.

VESSELS WARNED.

Warships Are at Target Practice Off Martha's Vineyard.

It will be dangerous for fishing vessels and other craft to frequent the waters off the south shore of Martha's Vineyard at night for a while, for the North Atlantic fleet is at present engaged in target practice on the range in that locality. Rear Admiral A. S. Barker gives notice of this fact in a letter to the press.

Bait News.

The St. John's, N. F., Herald of August 31 has the following on bait and bankers:

"All the fleet of bankers at Carbonear are baited, but there is an ice famine over there. Dealers have sent to Holyrood and other places in the bay can't procure any ice and the vessels must seek for it elsewhere."

"Squid struck in very plentifully at Torbay yesterday and the few bankers there will have no difficulty in baiting. Some of the vessels in Bay Bulls left for there today."

"Four Gloucester and three Lunenburg bankers are now at Bay Bulls in search of bait which is very scarce."

FINE RECORD.

Sch. Lucania Rolls Up Big Stock in Three Months.

Sch. Lucania, Capt. Martin L. Welch, stocked $4507 on her recent seining trip, the crew sharing $107.50.

Since the Lucania sailed May 27, on her maiden trip, she has stocked over $15,000 although Capt. Welch missed both the whole southern seining season and the usual Cape Shore trip. This makes the showing of Capt. Welch and his men all the more remarkable and their record for $15,000 in but a few days over three months shows that Capt. Welch is keeping up his well-earned record as one of the smartest skippers on the coast.

Big Georges Fare.

Sch. Arthur D. Story, Capt. William Sloan, arrived from Georges yesterday afternoon from a Georges handlining trip with one of the best fares of the season, 47,000 pounds of salt cod.
